SATURDAY VISIT TO N.C. MUSEUM OF HISTORY

Third graders and their parents interested in visiting the N.C. Museum of History's exhibit on the Lost Colony are welcome to join Linda Robinson on January 5 at 10:15 a.m. at the museum for a 1 hour tour. Reservations have been made for 20 students and 10 adults, so please e-mail her at lrobinson@wcpss.net to let her know if you are interested. It is free to students and parents if you are in our group, but parents need to provide transportation. This is not an official school function. Foundation News

Thank you for your contributions to the Foundation! For your convenience, another set of materials has been mailed to parents. If you have questions, please call the school (881-4923).

Project Enlightenment Parent Workshop

In January, as in years past, we will be sponsoring eight sessions of “Off To A Good Start As Your Child Enters Kindergarten” at various Wake County schools. This workshop is for parents of children who will be entering kindergarten in 2008. For more information and to see the workshop schedule, go to www.projectenlightenment.wcpss.net.

2nd Annual Lacy Book Drive – January 7 – 15

While cleaning out over the Winter Break, be sure to hold on to your used books to donate to the 2nd Annual Lacy Book Drive. All donated books will supplement Lacy teachers' books, and provide useful resources for students in need of books and ESL students. More information to come

GWIS (Girls and Women in Sports).

On Sunday, January 13th, fourth and fifth grade girls will travel by bus to Reynolds Coliseum to see the NC State women play UNC. Each student should have one parent or chaperone to meet us at the game. Parents and students get in free. We will all sit together at the game. Students should bring their own money for refreshments.

Hoops for Heart

On Friday, January 25th, all Ms Paul and Coach C's P.E classes will shoot hoops to raise money for the American Heart Association. The class that raises the most money will get an extra P.E. class. Last year Lacy raised over $2000.00. Donation envelopes will go out the 2nd week of January.
